

December 1, 2015 Official Bankruptcy Forms Training

Presented on November 19, 2015

Why the Forms Are Changing?

- Part of Forms Modernization Project which began in 2008
- Designed to be easier for debtors to read and understand
- To improve interface between technology and the forms
  - which will increase efficiency and reduce need to produce same information in multiple formats
- New forms will be more compatible with the bankruptcy courts Next Generation CM/ECF system

Which Forms are Changing?

- All but 6 existing official forms and virtually all of the director's forms – all forms are being renumbered
- Official Bankruptcy Forms are approved by the Judicial Conference and are required by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9009. These forms change from two to three digit numbers (sometimes followed by a letter), and generally follow the below pattern:

- 1XX forms --case opening, individual debtors
- 2XX forms --case opening, non-individual debtors
- 3XX forms -- court notices and orders, and
- 4XX forms -- all other types of forms

What About Director Forms?

- Director's Bankruptcy Forms are issued under Rule 9009 by the Director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts
- The use of Director's Forms may be required by local court rules or general orders, but otherwise exist for the convenience of the parties
- Director's bankruptcy forms have been changed from three- to four-digit numbers (sometimes followed by a letter); usually by adding a zero to the original form number

Case Opening Petition Forms

- The current Voluntary and Involuntary petition forms are broken into 5 separate forms.
- Separate petition forms for individuals, non-individuals and chapter 15 cases (foreign proceedings)
  - For Voluntary Cases: Forms 101, 201 and 401
  - For Involuntary Cases: Forms 105 and 205
- Most of the form changes involve separating the forms by the type of debtor.
- There will still be one filing event for opening a voluntary case and one filing event for opening an involuntary case (court use only)

Form 101- Vol Petition Individual Debtor

- This form is now 8 pages.
- References to, and Exhibits A, B, C and D themselves, have been eliminated. The requested information is either asked in the form itself or is not applicable to individual debtors
- Language and instructions are now simpler on all forms
- Includes chapter 7 and 11 individual business data
- There are comprehensive instructions accompanying all the new forms (see the Court's website under Forms>Dec 1 National Forms Changes)
- Users are also strongly encouraged to review the Committee Notes to each form for further understanding

Changes to Credit Counseling Process

Form 101 now includes credit counseling as part of the voluntary petition for individuals (No more Exhibit D):

– Exigent Circumstances:

- Under Part 5, requires the filing of a separate statement if debtor is alleging exigent circumstances and seeking a 30 day waiver
- The Court has created Local Form 1007-1.3, entitled “Statement of Exigent Circumstances” for this purpose
- Revised ECF Event: Event name changed from “Certificate” to “Statement of Exigent Circumstances”. Located under Bankruptcy Events>Other

– Motion for Waiver of Credit Counseling:

- If a debtor believes a briefing is not required because of incapacity, disability or active duty, a motion for waiver of credit counseling must be filed.
- New ECF Event: Motion for Waiver of Credit Counseling. Located under Bankruptcy Events>Motions>Waiver of Credit Counseling

Debtor Who Resides as a Tenant

The rent provisions have been removed from the petition and replaced with Official Forms:

- 101A -- Initial Statement About an Eviction Judgment Against You and
- 101B -- Statement About Payment of an Eviction Judgment Against You

Form 101A applies if:

- (1) the landlord has a judgment for possession or an eviction judgment;
- (2) the debtor rents the residence and
- (3) seeks to stay the eviction under §362(a)(3).

The debtor is now required to certify under penalty of perjury that:

- (1) they have a right to stay in the residence under state law and
- (2) that the rent has been paid to the court

The debtor is also required to timely serve a copy of the applicable statements on the landlord.

Form 101B and New Rent Related Events

If debtors wish to stay in their residence
for more than 30 days after filing:

- (1) They must file Form 101B within 30 days after filing the petition
- (2) Certify on Form 101B, under penalty of perjury, that:
  - (a) they have a right to stay in the residence under state law and
  - (b) that they have paid their landlord the entire delinquent amount as stated in the judgment for possession or in the eviction judgment

Representatives at CINGroup have advised us that their users have been notified by email, phone and through messaging in the software itself, but as an extra precaution, we are notifying court users as well.

The revised forms and other related information can be found on the U.S. Courts website at <http://www.uscourts.gov/rules-policies/pending-rules-amendments/pending-changesbankruptcy-forms>. As a result of these anticipated form changes, the Court will be making amendments to its local rules and/or local forms for conformity, which changes will soon be published for notice and comment.

12/1/15 Changes to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures affecting Bankruptcy

- FRCP 4, made applicable in FRBP 7004, reduces the time to serve a defendant from 120 to 90 days
- FRCP 16, made applicable in FRBP 7016, reduces the time the judge must issue a scheduling order from the earlier of, 90 days after any defendant is served (previously 120), or 60 days (previously 90) after any defendant has appeared
- The time to file the discovery plan with the Court will therefore automatically adjust based on the above deadline changes (approximately day 53 – see next slide)

AP and Contested Matter Scheduling Order and Discovery Plan Timetable

FRCP 16(b)(2)	Scheduling Order (SO) issues	60 days from any Defendant appearance (or 90 days from service, whichever occurs first)
FRCP 26(f)(1)	Parties must confer	21 days before SO issues (60-21)= Day 39 from Defendant appearance*
FRCP 26(f)(2)	Discover Plan due	14 days after parties confer (60-21+14)= Day 53 from Defendant appearance*

* Adjust date calculations if 90 days from service occurs before appearance

Strict Compliance with LBR 1009-1(c) -- Adding an Omitted Creditor after the Section 341 Notice is Mailed
