ORDER

Before the Court are two oddly-styled motions of the Debtor:
(1) "Debtors Motion for New Hearing on the Debtors Request for Filing Dated July 29, 2005" (Doc. #118); and (2) "Debtor's Motion for Stay of Action Pending Hearing" (Doc. #119). We have received responses/objections to the motions from the United States Trustee (Doc. #123), the Chapter 13 Trustee (Doc. #124); and the former secured creditor, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. (Doc. #126). Upon review of the procedural history of all of the ten prior bankruptcy cases of Kevin Sweet and his wife, Diane (Loranger) Sweet, the motions and the responses filed herein, and for the reasons argued by the respondents, which we adopt and incorporate herein by reference, the two referenced motions filed by Kevin Sweet are DENIED WITH PREJUDICE.

Dated at Providence, Rhode Island, this 5th day of August, 2005.

Arthur N. Votolato
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge
