ORDER

Heard on November 19, 2009, on the Chapter 13 Trustee's Objection to confirmation of the Debtors' Chapter 13 Plan (Doc. No. 17), and on Debtors' Motion to Stay confirmation hearing (Doc. No. 23). Trustee filed a Memorandum of law in support of objection to confirmation on October 5, 2009 (Doc. No. 19). Debtors filed their Memorandum in support of their response to the Trustee's objection to confirmation and motion for stay on November 4, 2009 (Doc. No. 24). Trustee filed a response to Debtors' motion to stay on November 10, 2009 (Doc. No. 27). The issues in this case appear to be within the scope of this Court's decision in In re Burbank, 401 B.R. 67 (Bankr. D.R.I. 2009), which is presently on direct appeal to the Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, and there is no stay pending appeal. The Trustee's request that I should revisit and reverse my decision in *Burbank*¹ is rejected.

While similar issues are before appellate courts whose rulings would probably be dispositive here, In re Lanning, 545 F.3d 1269 (10th Cir. 2008), cert. granted, 78 U.S.L.W. 3251 (U.S. Nov. 2, 2009)(No. 08-998); In re Burbank, 401 B.R. 67, appeal docketed, Nos. 09-1776, 09-1777 (1st Cir. June 4, 2009). The Debtors have not shown (or even alleged reasons) why this bankruptcy level matter should be held in suspense waiting for appellate rulings. See In re Mirajard and Sons, Inc., 201 B.R. 23, 26 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1996). The test for the issuance of a stay pending appeal is generally the same as the standard for the issuance of a preliminary injunction. Id. Specifically, the Movant must show:

¹ A hallmark of bankruptcy court administration is the priority accorded to time sensitive matters, so that the rights of parties do not "die on the vine" and become moot during time consuming appellate proceedings. See generally, In re Pearlman, 360 B.R. 19, 21 (Bankr. D.R.I. 2006)(discussing the general principle that "the time limits and deadlines established in the Bankruptcy Code and Rules are strictly enforced in order to (1) ensure the efficient administration of bankruptcy cases....").

- (1) there is likelihood of success on the merits of the appeal;
- (2) the moving party will suffer irreparable harm if a stay is not granted;
- (3) the harm to the moving party if the stay is not granted is greater than the injury to the opposing party if the stay is granted; and
- (4) the public interest would not be adversely affected by the issuance of the stay.

Id.

Accordingly, the Trustee's objection is OVERRULED, the Plan is confirmed as proposed by the Debtor, and the Chapter 13 Trustee is ORDERED to submit a Confirmation Order. The Debtors' Motion to Stay the Confirmation Hearing is rendered moot by this ruling, and is DENIED.

Entered as an Order of this Court.

Dated at Providence, Rhode Island, this 4th day of December, 2009.
