ORDER DENYING PETITIONS FOR UNCLAIMED FUNDS

Before the Court are two Petitions for Payment of Unclaimed Funds, one filed by Ferland Corporation and the other by Douglas Lumber Corporation. Both parties claim to be the true successor to Newell Lumber, the original creditor who was to receive the $2,468 at issue in this case.

At the initial hearing on June 8, 2006, a representative from Ferland Corporation appeared and stated that it was the real party-in-interest and that Douglas Lumber would be withdrawing its petition. The Court continued the matter to June 15, 2006, to have a representative from Douglas appear. At the June 15 hearing neither party appeared and to date, neither party has withdrawn its petition. Accordingly, both Petitions for Payment of Unclaimed Funds are DENIED.
