DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In re: Nancy A. Palmisciano, Esquire

Exemption Order No. 10-004

MP 10-00108

ORDER GRANTING ATTORNEY NANCY A. PALMISCIANO A PERMANENT EXEMPTION FROM ELECTRONIC FILING

Effective January 1, 2007, all papers must be filed and served electronically in the Court's electronic filing system, unless an exemption is granted. See, G.O. 06-003. This requirement was later adopted as Local Bankruptcy Rule 5005-4.

Earlier this year, Attorney Nancy A. Palmisciano became a registered electronic filer in this Court. Unfortunately, due to scheduling constraints she was not able to participate in the Court-sponsored CM/ECF training courses. She voluntarily utilized the Court's training modules on-line, and did however participate in an extensive independent training with court staff. After experiencing continued difficulties and an inability to successfully perform the functions relating to electronic filing, on May 6, 2010, Attorney Nancy A. Palmisciano filed a Motion for Excusal from electronic filing, and a request to be allowed to file papers conventionally.

In light of Attorney Palmisciano's continued inability to properly utilize the Court's electronic filing system and significant time spent by court staff in training, the Court finds that it would be in the best interest of all parties and the Court to grant her request to withdraw as an electronic filer in this Court. Accordingly, Attorney Palmisciano is hereby GRANTED permission to withdraw as an Electronic Filer pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 5005-4(c)(5). Counsel shall comply with the requirements of the withdrawal rule including serving "[c]opies of the request ... upon all registered attorneys/participants who have appeared in pending cases in which the withdrawing attorney/participant has appeared." Moreover, the Clerk is hereby directed to "immediately cancel the attorney/participant's password and will delete the attorney/participant from any applicable electronic service list." Local Rule 5005-4(c)(5).
